WELCOME TO TERM 2

Term 2 has started beautifully! Our learning is in full swing and the smiling faces are testament to the positive culture of TPS. I feel privileged to have the opportunity to work alongside the TPS community and look forward to a wonderful term.

Ms Pryor (Relieving Principal)

CROSS COUNTRY

CONGRATULATIONS

Well done to all our students who participated in the TREC Cross Country Carnival last term. This was a great day.

Congratulations to Isaac Mills, Jamie Coad, Sophia Ojwang, De Wet Brits and William Stojcevski, who earned the opportunity to represent TPS in the TREC team for the District Cross Country to be held on Tuesday 22 May.

TENNIS LESSONS

Tirranna PS students enjoyed their first of ten tennis lessons on Friday of Week 1. What a great opportunity these lessons are!

PBL

Our Week 2 focus is: Return to lines promptly

Congratulations: These students have earned the next level on the PBL Track

10 Revs: Isaac Tatarko

FRUIT TROUPE

Fruit Troupe will be back for Term 2. Starting Week 3 every Monday and Wednesday, a fruit platter will be provided for all students to enjoy.

OUTREACH PLAYGROUP PROGRAM

Playgroup is held at Tirranna Public School each Friday from 9.30am to 11.00am.

Please call the Outreach Officer at the Goulburn Regional Art Gallery on 4823 4442 for further information.

OPPORTUNITY CLASS

Applications for the 2019 Year 5 Opportunity Class are now open. Please ask at the TPS office if you want further information.

ASSEMBLIES (save the date)

Families are welcome to attend our two Term 2 assemblies. These will be a celebration of learning and student achievement. Students will share their work, and PBL and Class Awards will be handed out.
